2018-2019

Worked as criminal law clerk assisting and providing clerical support to criminal law attorneys in their tasks and functions. Conducted research and fact gathering relating to a case. Assisted lawyers in interviewing witnesses and preparing witness statements.

NBA Dancer / Charlotte Hornets

United States

2014-2017

I have been a three (3) year member of the Hornets NBA dance team the "Honey Bees". This job includes physical skill as well as mental preparedness and the ability to be in front of a camera and television. Additionally, it encompasses being a part of in-game entertainment, being a brand ambassador for the NBA Charlotte Hornets, community involvement, and volunteering. I have traveled extensively with the Hornets to NBA China - Shenzhen and Shanghai for the NBA Global Games. In addition, I was chosen by NBA Canada with a select group to promote NBA All-STAR 2015 in Toronto as well as I was chosen to represent the NBA at the Olympics in Rio 2016. My work with the Hornets was interrupted by a brain tumor that was removed in May 2017.

Intern/ ESPN UPSTATE Radio

Greenville, SC

2015

My senior internship was with the prestigious ESPN UPSTATE radio network in Greenville, SC. I co-hosted on air and created video blogs as well as interviews on air and online. I had the opportunity to work on radio row during ACC Media Days and to cover Clemson football games during their outstanding run. I also had the opportunity to cover Panther's training camp.

Profile

As a Social Media Influencer, I am adept at technology. I am also a law student who is used to working in a highly professional environment. Surviving a rare Brain Tumor in 2017, I am left half deaf, but with a drive and passion to pursue great things. From being on an NBA dance team to working with Luxury Car companies, I have the enthusiasm and character to represent your brand professionally.
